BURNED TO DEATH.

A Fatal Accident Near Church Hill.

A colored girl named Mittie Mosson, living at Mr. J. W. Hanbery's, near Church Hill, a few miles from this city, was burned to death on the night of the 25th inst. She was in a cabin alone with a colored infant, which was in the cradle. While standing near the fire her clothing caught on fire and quickly set fire to the bed-clothes in the child's cradle. The girl, with her clothing in flames, had presence of mind enough to put out the flames in the cradle and by the time she had succeeded in doing this every vestige of her own apparel had been burned off. Wrapping herself in her mother's night dress, she ran 40 yards to the residence of Mr. Hanbery and gave an account of the affair. She then returned to the cabin and died a short while thereafter. The girl was about 12 years of age.

Two Votes in Reach.

A shrewd Democratic observer of events said to-day: "There is a chance for the Democrats to get control of the senate of the fifteenth congress by a coup d'etat which is perfectly legitimate. Last winter the Republicans in the senate were so anxious to have Dakota admitted as a state that they made overtures to Senator Voorhees, whose son is a delegate from Washington Territory. The purpose was to win over Democratic opposition to Dakota by conceding Washington Territory's claim to admission at the same time. Dakota is overwhelming Republican, while Washington, it was believed, could eventually be wrested from the Democrats. Acting on this belief, the Republican senate passed bills admitting both Dakota and Washington. The state of Washington would send two Democratic senators here at once. The senate bills admitting both are now upon the house calendar. A Democratic house would only follow precedents in taking party advantage of the situation by passing the Washington bill in the coming short session and flouting a pretext to leave the Dakota bill on the calendar. The territory which Republican shrewdness reckoned on as at least a debatable ground has been carried for the Democrats and Delegate Voorhees by an increased majority. The machinery necessary for forming the state government and electing the United States senators can be put into operation very soon. By the time the next congress meets two Democratic senators from the state of Washington can be in the city of Washington ready to vote with their party. The senate would stand Democrats, thirty-nine; Republicans, thirty-nine; that is if the wild Riddleberger and the unruly Van Wyck can be kept in the Republican line, which is exceedingly doubtful."—Missouri Republican.

THE QUESTION OF WARDS OR NO WARDS.

The question of wards or no wards will be voted on at the city election December 11th. Old fogies will have an opportunity to show their hands by voting for keeping the whole city in one ward. We believe the majority of the voters of Hopkinsville are enterprising, progressive and wide-awake citizens who are unwilling for the city to take a backward step. If so, all right, if not we can stand it if the town (not city) can.

HERE AND THERE.

Hot drinks at Phoenix Hotel saloon.

New corn is retailing at $2 per barrel.

The best drinks in the city at the Phoenix Hotel Saloon.

Dr. A. A. Willis will lecture at the Opera House on the 17th prox.

Mrs. Rose Wilson had an appointment to address the ladies last night.

Mrs. Robt. Renshaw died Thursday at her home about five miles from the city.

There was a very pleasant dance given at Howe's Hall last Friday evening.

Does Hopkinsville want to be a city, or is she content to be a town—spelled with a little t?

It took 72 big gobblers to give the patients at the Asylum Thanksgiving turkey last Thursday.

M. Lipsitt offers his stock of goods at No. 103, Main street, at cost. See local elsewhere.

The winter term of Circuit Court will begin Monday January 3rd, and continue two weeks.

When you want pure and reliable whiskeys, wines or brandies, call at the Phoenix Hotel saloon.

Thanksgiving services were held at the Episcopal church as well as at the 9th street Presbyterian church.

The confecturers are displaying their stocks of Christmas goods and getting ready for the holiday trade.

Eggs have jumped up to 20 cents and are not liable to come down before the holidays, as the hens appear to be on a strike.

The younger factors of the social circles, who will become the beaux and belles of the city in a few years, had a social gathering at Judge Winfree's Thursday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Biddle were given a surprise donation party on the evening of Thanksgiving, by the members of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Biddle is pastor.

The assessor and his deputies are busy listing property. The work must be finished in two weeks more. The assessed valuation of property in the county will not fall short of $7,000,000.

* The Phoenix Hotel saloon will continue to run until Jan. 1st, and those who drink can find there the choicest and best brands of liquors in the city. Special attention given to the filling of jugs.

Rev. R. W. Morehead, assisted by Rev. J. T. Barrow, of Hopkinsville, has just closed a protracted meeting at New Bethel which resulted in eighteen professions and twenty-two additions.—Princeton Banner.

W. F. Costell, U. S. Mail contractor, is in the city for the purpose of re-letting the Lafayette star route contract. It is to be hoped that the route will be re-established upon a basis that will prevent mail blockades in the future.

Jo-Jo, the Russian dog-faced boy, is the leading attraction of a concert company now playing a three days' engagement at the Opera House. The doors are open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. The show will continue throughout to-day and to-morrow.

Mr. F. McCoy will, in a few days, open a first-class furniture store at Pembroke in connection with the lumber business, where he will keep all grades of furniture. This being the only establishment of the kind in that place, it will no doubt have a large patronage.

In another column appears an advertisement of the Waller farm situated in Trigg County, near the I. A. & T. R. R. This farm is in one of the finest farming sections in Western Kentucky, and the early completion of the railroad to Princeton will enhance the value of the lands along its line. Here is a chance to make a judicious investment.

Mrs. Lou Steger, of the Beverly neighborhood, died on the 25th inst. She was one of the best women in the county and leaves many relatives and friends to mourn her taking-off. She was the widow of Wm. Steger, deceased, was 73 years old and had been a member of the Baptist church for over 50 years. She died of flux and was sick only about a week.

Mr. Frank P. Cook, who has for some months past held the position of book-keeper with Jas. Pye & Co., the Main St. Clothiers, left Sunday for Birmingham, Ala., to accept a position in M. Lipsitt's clothing plant in that city. Mr. Cook during his business associations here has made many friends who regret to give him up, yet they commend him to the good people of that city as a young gentleman of morality, industry and business ability, and wish him much success in his new department.

Messrs. Herndon, Hallums & Co., Tobacco Warehousemen of Clarksville, insert an advertisement in this issue. The firm succeeds the old firm of Herndon, Young & Co., that has been so well and favorably known to the farmers of the adjacent section, and none of the firm's old strength is lost by the admission of Mr. Hallums, who is a man of experience and ability as a tobaccoist. Mr. T. P. Major, one of the younger members, has lost none of his interest in the welfare of the farmer, and always makes it pleasant as well as profitable to all those who entrust their tobacco to the Grange Warehouse. The number of hogheads sold by this firm increase every year, which bears evidence of its growing popularity among the planters.

A Tribute to the Memory of a Friend.

Mrs. F. Jennie Bush died Sunday, Nov. 14. Had she lived until the 25th of this month, she would have been 28 years of age. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. R. S. Gary, of this county, and was married to Mr. C. H. Bush, May 5, 1880. At sixteen she joined the Baptist church, of which she remained a consistent member until the day she was so suddenly called from earth. Death has invaded a happy home in our midst and taken from it a loving wife and a devoted mother. It has taken from her parents their first born; from brothers and sisters an affectionate elder sister; and from a large circle of relatives and friends it has removed a gentle, loved friend, who will ever be sadly missed. In all the relations of life she was the same quiet, modest, gentle woman. While she was an ornament to society, she possessed in a remarkable degree those admirable qualities of head and heart which render a true woman capable of making home the most attractive place on earth to her husband and children. Nor did she fail to recognize the solemn responsibility of training her children. Often has her little boy recited to us Bible stories which mama taught him. Alas! no longer will those dear little ones be guided by a mother's hand! No longer will her husband be welcomed at his home by her, who was the light of it! We tender him our heart felt sympathy, yet we feel it can little avail one so sorely bereft. We will cherish her memory, feeling that "The love which survives the tomb is one of the noblest tributes of the soul."

"Oh! lift our narrow thoughts above, To wait Thy purpose understood."

ONE WHO LOVED HER.

Hunting Party Returned.

The party of hunters headed by Capt. S. R. White, who went to Arkansas to hunt, have returned home. The following gentlemen composed the party, viz:

S. R. White and J. R. Caudle, Newstead; Geo. M. Hart and P. J. Glass, Hopkinsville; Lyman McCombs, Pembroke; Austin Peay, Garrettsburg; Ed. Drane, Henry Drane and J. S. Parrish, Clarksville; H. H. Bryant, Bellevue, and T. P. Burke, New York. The party carried with them five negroes, 32 hounds, 16 head of stock, 2 wagons, 5 tents and 20 gallons of snake-bite antidotes. The time out was 18 days and the number of deer killed was 11, an average of one to each member of the party. Esq. Peay had the best luck, killing three. Geo. Hart killed one of the biggest of the bucks. The point where the camp was located was near Claenden, Ark., between the White and Cash rivers. The weather was rainy and disagreeable a good part of the time, but for this fact at least 50 deer would have been killed, as they were very plentiful. It was so muddy, though, that it was a difficult matter to travel through the woods and river bottoms. There was any amount of fish and small game bagged.

The party all enjoyed excellent health and pronounce the hunt a big success despite the draw-backs. The Christian county part of the crowd got home Friday.

A Horrible Outrage.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky., Nov. 26.—A report reaches here that the Poe family, who were thought to have been destroyed by fire in Knox county a month ago, were in reality murdered by a neighbor man and concubine, whose enmity they had incurred. The facts have been developed through the story told by an illegitimate boy of ten years, whom the reputed father had threatened and made mad. This boy says the man cut from ear to ear the throats of each of the eight persons while they slept, and that his mother then dragged the bodies to the middle of the room and set them on fire. Then also fired the house, took some bed clothing and other articles and departed. On the boy's statement arrests and investigation followed, and the Poe articles were found in the cellar of the suspected parties' house. They refuse to be interviewed, and are now in the Barbourville jail awaiting an examination.

Kentucky Progress.

(Manufacturer's Record.)

J. A. Clayton will establish a saw mill at Henderson, Ky.

The Kentucky & Indiana Bridge Co., Louisville, Ky., contemplate building a belt railroad around that city.

It is stated that the Harrodsburg Saw & Planing Mill Co., has been incorporated at Harrodsburg, Ky.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. will build a large freight shed and round-house at Louisville, Ky.

The works of the Kensington Art Tile Co., Newport, Ky., are being enlarged.

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co., will build water works at Guthrie, Ky., at a cost of about $20,000. A woolen factory is reported to be erected as soon as the water works are completed.

Alcy Short, for widow of Chas. Edmunds, Hopkinsville, was granted a pension Saturday. We never heard of the parties before.

The Garth-Arnold slander suit is in progress at Elkton this week. There is a strong array of counsel on both sides, including Hon. Jno. Y. Brown for the plaintiff and Hon. H. G. Petree and W. Henry for the defendants. The arguments will probably begin to-day and occupy several days.

Mr. Nick Lacy, of the Kirkmansville neighborhood, who was reported by the Elkton Progress as killed on Nov. 16th by a runaway team, is not dead. He was seriously hurt, but was alive and doing well at last accounts and will soon be up again.

Maj. Thos. F. Henry Dead.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Nov. 25.—Maj. Thos. F. Henry died of paralysis of the heart at his residence this evening after an illness of two days. He was the son of the late Hon. Gustavus A. Henry, the silver-tongued orator of Tennessee. He enlisted in the late war, in the Confederate army, and was appointed aide-de-camp to the late Maj. Gen. Cheatham with the rank of Captain. At Resaca, Ga., he was promoted to a Major for gallantry, and made Inspector General of Cheatham's division. He was shot from his horse at Franklin, Tenn. For several years after the war he practiced law with his father and the late J. O. Shackelford. He was noted as a fine speaker, and was one of our best citizens. He leaves a wife and two children. His sudden death is a shock to the whole community.
